GENERAL DISCLOSURES

The securities laws of the Province of Ontario require securities dealers and advisers, when they trade in or advise with respect to their own securities or securities of certain other issuers to which they, or certain other parties related to them, are related or connected, to do so only in accordance with particular disclosure and other rules. These rules require dealers and advisers, prior to trading with or advising their customers or clients, to inform them of the relevant relationships and connections with the issuer of the securities. Clients and customers should refer to the applicable provisions of these securities laws for the particulars of these rules and their rights or consult with a legal adviser: R.R.O. 1990, Reg. 1015, s. 223 (1); O. Reg. 80/95, s. 29 (1); O. Reg. 542/98, s. 1 (1).

McLean Asset Management Ltd. (McLean) is a registrant under applicable securities laws and, in the course of a distribution, would be a connected issuer of ROMC Fund (ROMC). ROMC, managed and distributed by McLean, is not a reporting issuer.

Under certain circumstances, McLean may deal with customers or for customers in securities transactions where the issuer of the securities or the other party to the transaction is ROMC. Since these transactions may create a conflict between McLean's interest and customers, McLean is required by securities law to disclose to customers certain relevant matters relating to the transactions. This statement contains a general description of the required disclosure.

McLean is the manager and distributor of ROMC Fund. Unless informed to the contrary by McLean, with respect to a particular security:

- (a) Securities sold by McLean are not insured by Canada Deposit Insurance Corp or by any other government deposit insurer;
- (b) Securities sold by McLean are not guaranteed by McLean;
- (c) Values of securities sold by McLean are subject to market fluctuations.

Dispute Resolution

If you have a complaint about MAM or the Fund, please direct it to the Manager at 1 Richmond Street West, Suite 800, Toronto, Ontario M5H 3W4, telephone: 416-488-0547, or email: davidmclean@mamgmt.com. Tell the Manager what went wrong, when it happened and what you would like done about it. I will get back to you in writing, as soon as possible, hopefully within 5 business days.

To help the Manager resolve your complaint, please reply promptly if you are asked for more information and keep copies of all relevant documents, such as letters, emails and notes of conversations. The Manager will try to provide a resolution in writing within 90 days of receiving your complaint. It will include a summary of the complaint, the results of any investigation, the Manager's decision as to how to resolve the complaint, and an explanation of that decision. If the Manager cannot provide you with a resolution within 90 days, you will be informed of the delay, explained why it is delayed, and provided with a new date.

If you are not satisfied with the Manager's resolution, you may be eligible for the independent dispute resolution service offered by the Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments (OBSI). If you are a Québec resident, you may consider the free mediation service offered by the Autorité des marchés financiers. In addition, you may wish to seek legal counsel.

OBSI is a free and independent dispute resolution service that is available to MAM's clients. You have the right to use OBSI's service if your complaint relates to a trading or advising activity of MAM, you brought your complaint to the Manager within 6 years from the time that you first knew—or ought to have known—about the event that caused the complaint, and you file your complaint with OBSI according to its time limits, as set out below. Using OBSI's service does not restrict your ability to take your complaint to a dispute resolution service of your choosing at your own expense, or to bring an action in court. (Keep in mind there are time limits for taking legal action.)

If the Manager does not provide you with a resolution within 90 days, you can take your complaint to OBSI any time after the 90-day period has ended. If you are not satisfied with the Manager's resolution, you have up to 180 days after being provided it to take your complaint to OBSI. You can contact OBSI at email: ombudsman@obsi.ca, telephone: 1-888-451-4519, or 416-287-2877 in Toronto.

OBSI works confidentially and in an informal manner. It is not like going to court and you do not need a lawyer. During its investigation, OBSI may interview you and representatives of MAM. MAM is required to cooperate in OBSI's investigations. OBSI can help you best if you promptly provide all relevant information, including your name and contact information, the Manager's name and contact information, details of your complaint as well as all relevant documents, including any correspondence and notes of discussions with the Manager. Once OBSI has completed its investigation, it will provide its recommendations to you and the Manager. OBSI's recommendations are not binding on you or the Manager. OBSI can recommend compensation of up to $350,000. If your claim is higher, you will have to agree to that limit on any compensation you seek through OBSI. For more information about OBSI, visit www.obsi.ca.
